

We are here for you!

"Helping individuals reach their full potential through strategic planning and clearly defined goals".

- Serving Individuals, Corporations and Nonprofit Organizations.
- We recognize that there are strong divisions and issues involving equity and inclusion. A business or non-profit can have its core vision splintered if its leadership team is unable to bridge these differences.
- We recognize a disconnect when hiring people who have been impacted by the criminal legal system. Businesses are missing opportunities with amazing leaders who should not be identified by their past.
- New Direction Coaching & Counseling helps leadership better understand and address current issues while increasing cohesion within the organization. We will help your leaders develop a plan to be more effective and have a successful work environment.
